

- “I appreciate Professor Kang’s in class examples and notes. She explained topics very clearly and made sure we all understood the topics before moving on. I liked that she used the iPad to make notes, because it was more clear to see as compared to when professor’s write on the whiteboard. It was also helpful having access to her notes on Canvas.”
- “The extra credit at the beginning of the course was helpful because it motivated me to look at the material before lectures. The problem sets and practice exams were also very helpful to learn the material.”
- “The concept checks provided an excellent way of cementing newly taught information in my head. This helped very much on the exams.”
- “The lectures were very helpful because she was always very willing to answer any questions that we had about the material.”
- “The professor, Hyein Kang, was very thorough in her lectures, which made it very easy to follow. The problem sets helped to learn the course material as did the concept checks. She gives plenty of extra credit opportunities and really wants the students to perform well in the course. I would highly recommend taking this course with her.”
- “The presentation of material in class was the most helpful. The instructor was very clear and straight forward with concepts in a class that almost requires this way of teaching for success.”
- “She was very thorough in explaining concepts and made sure to phrase things in multiple ways in order to ensure understanding.”
- “Very kind and helpful. Genuinely invested in our understanding and ultimate learning outcomes.”
- “Modern teaching is excellent with the iPad. Skillful in her field, great at making difficult concepts accessible to everyone and always there to give help to those that need it. Great teacher.”
- “She used very clear and concise examples, examples which usually helped greatly on exam day. All of her notes and slides were posted to canvas very promptly, ensuring that the information was always easily accessible.”
- “She explained things very well and figured out a new way to explain it if someone didn’t understand it.”
- “Very caring and always open to questions and corrections”
- “Professor Kang was fantastic. She was very kind and considerate and would go above and beyond to help out whenever i needed it. She presented material very well and i believe i learned a lot from her.”
- “She was very accommodating and willing to listen to student feedback. She was extremely helpful and available to students.”
